How Parliamentary Papers are catalogued:

Each volume is cataloged separately. The beginning call number for all of them is

J 301 .I7

The combination of letters and numbers listed above on p.1 is the subject cutter number. So, for example, volume 89 of the slave trade will have the following call number:

J 301 .I7 S57, v.89

To search if the particular volume you want has been cataloged you can do a call number search or search on the series title, British Parliamentary Papers, along with the appropriate subheading.
