

If you were to target one geographic location to help conserve salmon populations (e.g., spawning grounds, river, estuary, or open ocean), which would it be and why?